

FRIDAY FLIGHT ZONE POWER RANKINGS

4 more games till Championship Sunday!!! What a season thus far, so much growth and still so much potential within these superb student athletes. This week I have tried something a little different. I will be unveiling the Top Ten Flight Zone Rankings regardless of division.

TOP TEN FLIGHT ZONE TEAMS

- 1. 12U Panthers – (10-0) With outstanding QB play the high flying Panthers are lighting up the scoreboard with a whopping 262 pts scored on the season. Looking for their 4th straight league title these boys are on a mission.
- 2. 8U Jr. Bengals – (10-0) Defense wins championships they say. Giving up only 24 points on the season this is how they plan to challenge for their 1st league championship. With a group that has arguably the most well rounded roster from top to bottom.
- 3. 10U Vikings – (9-1) Riding a 7 game winning streak these guys are no longer flying under the radar. If you haven't seen their elusive dynamic duo you are missing a show!!
- 4. 10U Bengals – (9-1) The Bengals coaches preach defense on each of their teams which is evident with this group only giving up 18 pts on the season. However that 18 was in one game. Look for this group to bounce back quickly.
- 5. 12U Bulldogs – (7-3) A group that could truthfully be in the top 3. Always well coached and their aggressive play style usually has them in the championship game. With a 6 game winning streak will this be the season they overtake their biggest foe?

- 6. 10U Core – (7-3) Getting acclimated to the Madden rules took a little time and with their big boy back in full force these kids are on a 5 game winning streak and just handed the 10U Bengals their 1st loss.
- 7. 10U Panthers – (7-3) Baseball by spring, football by fall. Coach Cumberland and his group have been together since puppies and that chemistry has them striving in this season.
- 8. 8U Seahawks – (8-2) The Flight Zone 8U version of the 2002 Rams greatest show on turf they thrive on their aerial attack and ain't afraid to show it! Coming off a tough loss to their biggest rival I look for them to be right there in championship contention.
- 9. 10U Eagles – (6-4) Coming from the WESTSIDE!!! The gritty tough kids from Saline are here to play and stay!! Coach Carr and his group has had their ups and downs but are right there as a championship contender with a +57 point differential.
- 10. 8U Lions – (6-4) Probably the most growth I have seen within a group all year. Coach Imsland and Wilson's Lions have put in the work and they are reaping the benefits of being a contender for a 8U title

GAMES OF THE WEEK

- 1. 8U Seahawks vs 8U Lions – Field 3 – 1030 am
- 2. 10U Vikings vs 10U Bengals – Field 3 – 1100 am
- 3. 12U Panthers vs 12U Bulldogs – Field 4 1000 am